

Youth, Parents and Tertiary Education: A Parenting guide for success and excellence is a well written and timely book. The book is highly recommended for students in tertiary institutions, parents, counselors, health workers and teachers. The sound principles outlined in the book will be of tremendous benefit in our individual and collective march towards a better society.

Caroline E. Ofovwre, PhD
Psychologist, School of Medicine
University of Benin, Nigeria

Janet Olufunmilayo Ola, Ed.D., is a seasoned Educational Psychologist and counselor. She has an MA Degree in Developmental Psychology and an Ed.D in Educational Psychology from Andrews University, Berrien Springs, Michigan, USA. With over thirty years of experience in counseling parents and youth, she is a highly sought after motivational speaker and author. She is also the mother of successful adult children and a Pastor's wife. The dynamic combination of her expertise and exemplary family life gives a down-to-earth yet professional flavor to this book. She currently serves as the Vice President for Student Development and Services at Babcock University, Nigeria.

Vickie Ogumlade, PhD, MSW
Counselor/Social Worker,
Spelman College, Georgia, USA.

Augusta Y. Olaore, PhD, MSW, is a passionate and dynamic human services professional. She is a social worker who currently serves as the Director of Student Support Services at Babcock University. She is also the program coordinator for the Bachelors in Social Work Program and Human Services at the university. She brought both depth and breadth into the authorship of this book which came from her years of experience as a direct service practitioner both in the United States as well in Nigeria. Her daily duties brings her in contact with both parents and students who are experiencing a diversity of challenges in the course of their university sojourn. Augusta has also presented several international parenting conferences and seminars where the issues presented in this book were addressed. She is a pastor's wife and a mother of young adults.

Jonathan Chinaka Nwosu, FCIA, an Education Administrator is a Fellow, Chartered Institute of Administration, is currently running his Doctoral Degree Programme at Olabisi Onabanjo University, Ogun state. He has membership in some professional Associations: Association of Supervision and Curriculum Development (ASCD), National Association of Education Planning and Administration (NAEPA) Nigeria Association of Education Researcher and Evaluation (NAERE), Nigeria Institute of Training and Development (NITAD), Nigeria Institute of Management (NIM), African Association of Public Administration and Management.

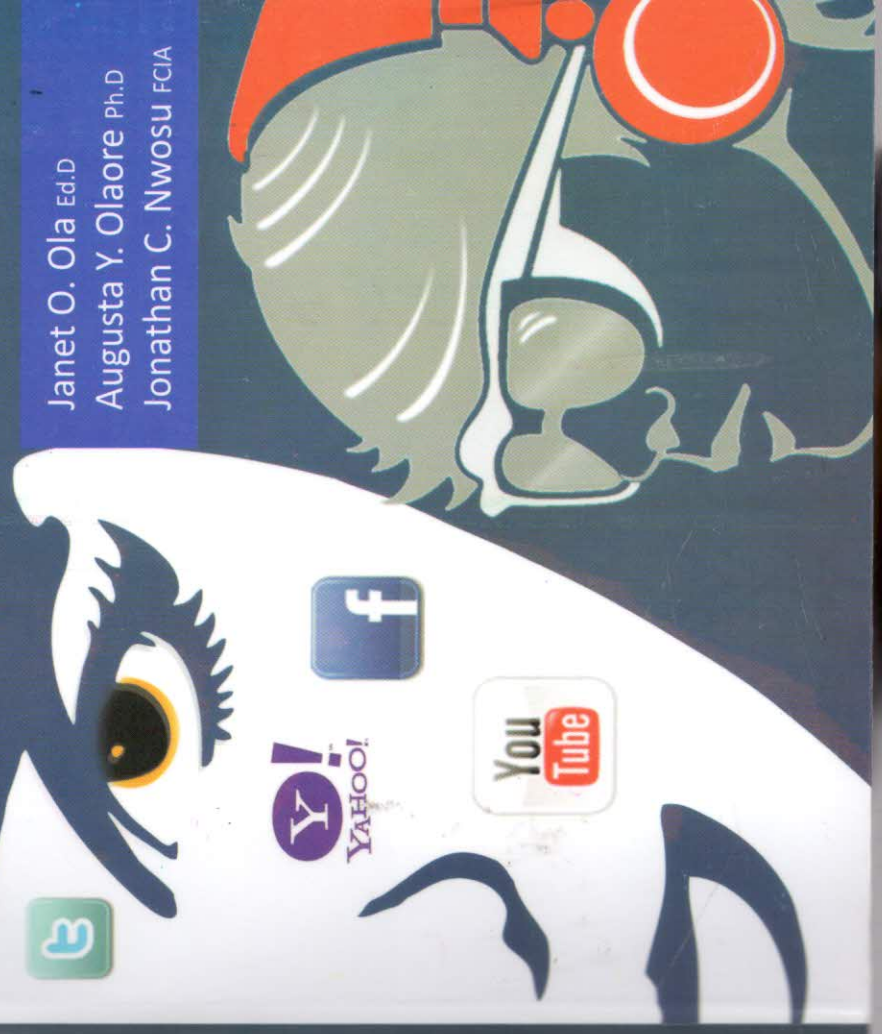

Nwosu has contributed several articles in reputable local and international journals and has authored and co-authored books in various aspects of Education Management. Presently, he is the Deputy Registrar, Babcock University, Ogun State, Nigeria.

ISBN: 978 - 978 - 178 - 178 - 053 - 5

Youth, Parents and Tertiary Education

A Parenting Guide for Excellence and Success

Janet O. Ola Ed.D
Augusta Y. Olaore Ph.D
Jonathan C. Nwosu FCIA

Jonathan C. Nwosu, FCIA